Requirements: Compliance with ranch policies including, but not limited to:

- Wearing proper ranch attire to include boots that provide protection for feet and support for ankles
- No smoking in any Stormwalker Ranch facility, include barn, house, loafing sheds, announcer stand and future buildings
- Work outdoors: twist, bend, kneel, climb and use hand tools
- A Desire to learn

Responsibility: When we say that the intern will have the opportunity to learn "from the ground up", we are being quite literal.

Responsibilities include, but are not be limited to:

- The cleaning of stalls and paddocks
- The execution of the feeding schedule

- The execution of the grooming schedule
- The execution of the horse fitness schedule
- The assistance with the horse training program
- The assistance with the riding lesson program

Interns will learn about and assist with:

- The development of the equine nutrition program
- The development of horse training programs
- The development of the annual budget
- The Management of a full care and custody program

Stormwalker Ranch includes two properties: The primary property is located at HWY 75 and Road 1100 in Dewey, OK, and the secondary property is located at the Intersection of Road 1100 and 4050 in Wann, OK. Interns may be tasked with duties at either/both property.

Stormwalker Ranch: SWR is dedicated to Helping Horses Help People. The Ranch provides its clients and community with horse training programs, recreational and therapeutic riding programs. SWR is dedicated to celebrating our western heritage and ministering to the community by providing a place and programs that allow for people to not only grow into the people that they want to be but become the people they were meant to be.

Cowboy Dressage: We have found that providing our riders an opportunity to show and compete works toward accomplishing their goals in terms of personal development. There are many options when it comes to showing, but the community with which SWR is most philosophically aligned is that of "Cowboy Dressage"®.

Horsemanship: Stormwalker's style of horsemanship is consistent with the horsemanship values of Cowboy Dressage®. Training horses through the use of soft feel, partnership, communication and trust instead of fear and mechanics.

Outreach Programs: While a person is not required to be a Christian to work with Stormwalker Ranch, it is important for intern candidates to know that SWR has evangelical goals and is dedicated to growing a rider's relationship with Jesus as Lord and Savior.
